Dear Professor Barth

I am writing on behalf of myself and my friends to tell you how much we appreciated your kindness the other day in giving us an hour of your very full programme in order to discuss with us one or two points about which we wished to get clear.

So let me say how glad we were to meet you for your own sake quite apart from anything you said and that we shall treasure the memory. We were also extremely glad to have the light you shed on several vital subjects. We all wish to say a very sincere "thank you".

We hope that you will be good enough to accept from us some books concerning our work as a monument of our meeting. We are asking our London office to send you three representative ones showing our message and methods.

Tomorrow as we leave Basel it is with the joyful knowledge that some students have come to rejoice in the knowledge of Christ as a personal Saviour and from henceforth can say with St Paul "Not I, but Christ liveth in me".

Yrs Very Sincerely
Howard Guinness
