We are glad to announce the appearance of what Karl Barth describes as "a smaller younger brother of the Epistle to the Romans of 1918 and 1921." This Shorter Commentary on Romans (15s., S.C.M.) is first-class value for comparatively modest money. "Every Christian ought to know this Epistle and study it persistently," said Luther. Barth will help us to grasp it better, for even his shocks are salutary.
