

Radio Free Europe . . .

The San Quentin News, in conjunction with the Inmate Council, will participate in the "Radio Free Europe Campaign," along with 64 California newspapers. We are the first prison paper to be extended this type of invitation.

It is an honor to work with such papers as the Los Angeles Times, Long Beach Independent Press-Telegram, Glendale News-Press, Hollywood Citizen-News, Inglewood News, Ontario-Upland Report, Pasadena Independent Star-News, San Jose Mercury, Alameda Times-Star, Chico Enterprise-Record and many others.

Radio Free Europe is a private, non-profit American network of 28 powerful transmitters and relay stations located in West Germany and Portugal. RFE broadcasts through the Iron Curtain to the Communist-dominated countries of Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Romania and Bulgaria.

Communist oppression prevents the people in East Europe from having a free press. To fill this void, Radio Free Europe provides a free press in exile.

RFE broadcasts expose Communist lies and hypocrisies about the free world and particularly the United States. Half of the program content is devoted to news and news analysis. The remaining half features religion, folk music, national heritage and other subjects the Communists try to suppress.

Respected refugees from the captive countries broadcast RFE programs, thus insuring that listeners in each country hear programs in their native tongues. All programs and staff members are supervised and controlled by American personnel.

There are over 10½ million radio sets and 79 million captive people in RFE's target countries. Each day 300,000 words enter RFE's central newsroom in Munich from the United States, and ten other European countries.

Radio Free Europe, because it is privately operated, can concentrate on East Europe. "The Voice of America" is the official voice of the U.S. government. It broadcasts globally in 38 languages and can devote only a limited amount of time to the Iron Curtain Countries.

We have been given a chance to publicize this campaign in "The News." We hope that all inmates of San Quentin will understand the fate of these captive people, and will cooperate with "The News" and the Inmate Council in assisting the Radio Free Europe movement.

Traffic Citations . . .

If you had a traffic citation issued against you before coming to prison and did not take care of this obligation, see your Counselor as soon as possible. He will attempt to straighten this matter out with the Police Department.

Parolees are being jailed and fined substantial amounts because of old traffic violations that were never erased from the police blotter.

Camps

The new permanent camp at Deadwood, near Fort Jones in Siskiyou County, will have its final inspection on Thursday, May 24. It is anticipated that this 80-man camp will be opened approximately June 1.

June 11 is the projected opening date for the seasonal camp at Ice Springs near Elk Creek in Glenn County. This 32-man camp will be operated seasonally in conjunction with the United States Forestry Service, and will provide emergency fire protection for the Federal forest.

The opening of these camps will bring the total San Quentin camp operation to nine permanent (including the mobile unit) and one seasonal camp, with approximately 684 men in the overall program.

"One-Two-Three"

James Cagney—Arlene Francis
May 26-27

This adaptation of a Ferenc Molnar play takes a sly peek at some wacky goings-on between commissars and commercialists in today's divided Berlin.

Nothing could be more topical than the German capital, which has been of so much concern of late. But while the world's press treats the subject in terms of rampant, the makers of this production simply put their tongues against their cheeks.

They prove that human comedy is to be found even in the most charged situations.

Running Time: 108 minutes.
Rating: Excellent.

"The Children's Hour"

Shirley Maclaine—A. Hepburn
June 2-3

"The Children's Hour" may become one of the most talked about flicks the Big Yard gang has witnessed in ages.

The until-recently-tabu subject of this particular production—latent lesbianism!

This United Artists release is the first film in history to receive permission from the Production Code Association for the portrayal of sexual aberrations on the screen.

In this case, the subject is treated with care, discretion and due restraint.

Running Time: 109 minutes.
Rating: Excellent.

"The Happy Thieves"

Rex Harrison—Rita Hayworth
June 5

"The Happy Thieves" of this story belong to the growing legion of likeable "bad guys." Although we know they are guilty of grand offenses against society's standard of legality, they are presented as such pleasant and charming people; they go about their "dirty work" in such an ingratiating manner, we go along with the producer's wish, and hope they get away with it, in spite of our possible moral indignation.

The philosophy of this droll and sometimes suspenseful comedy-adventure is soon established by Harrison, the head of the unholy trio. He believes that we are all crooks, just some more so than others. If Bastille show-goers are willing to accept this premise, they should be in for much fun.
Running Time: 88 minutes

CHAPLAIN ESHELMAN PRESENTS A BOOK TO DR. KARL BARTH

San Quentin's Chaplain Eshelman presents a copy of his recently published book, "Death Row Chaplain," to visiting Dr. Barth, who has been a well-known author for many years.

Dr. Barth Tours San Quentin; Will Lecture In The States

One of the great theologians of this century, Dr. Karl Barth, visited San Quentin on Wednesday morning, May 16. As guest of Supervising Chaplain Byron E. Eshelman, Dr. Barth toured the Institution and listened to a special concert presented by the 40-voice New Chapel Choir.

During the tour, Chaplain Eshelman presented to the 76-year-old theologian a first-off-the-press copy of his book, "Death Row Chaplain."

PROMINENT WORKS

A native of Basel, Switzerland, Dr. Barth has written more than 200 books, treatises and sermons. Prominent among his works are: "Faith of the Church," "The Word of God and the Word of Man," and "Christ and Adam," all available at the chapel library.

Dr. Barth, who speaks precise English, rejects the Calvinistic theory of pre-destination—that man is subject to the whims of an unknown God, far away in his majesty.

"Predestination in its true sense," he said, "is to know how Jesus Christ lived. Through Him we know God. Then we may accept life and destiny as grounded in the eternal will of God. We know what is necessary for us to do in life."

Dr. Barth, in his first trip to the United States, will make a tour of Civil War battlefields and present a series of lectures at universities and theological seminars across the country.

During his three days in the Bay Area, the graying Doctor stayed at the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo. He spoke May 15 at Calvary Presbyterian Church in San Francisco.

Accompanying Dr. Barth were Dr. Gill, President, San Francisco Seminary; Barth's sons, Gill and Marcus; and his secretary, Charlet Kruschbaum.

Adult Authority Board

The State Senate recently confirmed an appointment to the Adult Authority of Dr. Harry Kamp and William Madden.

Kamp was formally chairman of the Board of Trustees, California Institution for Women, while Madden was Captain of the Los Angeles Narcotics squad.
