Prof. Carl Barth,

Göttingen Germany,

Dear Bro. Barth,

As a layman in the Reformed Church, I am much interested in education of work, I write you as an ^{unimportant} theologian, for some information, for which I trust you will be able and ready to give.

1st Is it necessary for a man to be a Christian to believe the Bible is the inspired word and revelation of God? ^{Respiration}
2nd To believe in God eternally existing ^{Original} three persons?

3rd The Jesus Christ was divine and of Virgin birth? ^{Prophetic}

4th To believe in the creation of man and fall of man? ^{Divine}

5th To believe, a sinner becomes justified ^{alone} through the vicarious death of Christ and his blood atonement? ^{Prophetic}

6th To believe in the bodily resurrection of Christ? ^{Prophetic}

7th To believe in the ascended and interceding Christ? ^{Prophetic}

Or can we fully rely upon many of the recent discoveries that scientists have made that she is the likely to be incorrect in many ways.

Thanking you in advance and wishing you many successful years
I remain, yours sincerely,

C. V. Crocker
