

Basle, June 11th 1930.

Dear cousin Charles.

I just want to send you a few words to thank you for the fine day my husband spent with you. He returned so glad from Bonn and told me much about you and your family, it was very nice to hear about you all.

And now I congratulate you for your new dignity and hope you will have a beautiful and interesting time in England. It is so long ago I have been in England that I am afraid, your teacher would find my English very bad.

Much love to Kelly and Margiska and her brothers (especially Mathis) and to yourself my most respectful greetings.

Yours Maudie
(Larkin)
