The Rev. Professor Karl Barth, D.D.,
The University of Münster,
Münster, Westphalia,

My dear Professor Barth:

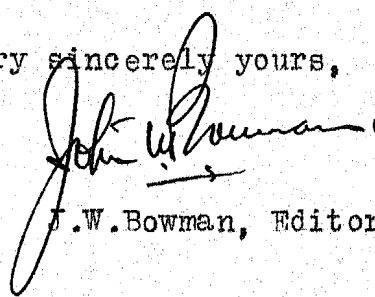

After reading numerous reviews of your book on "The Word of God and the Word of Man", I have just been having the indescribable pleasure of reading it! It is, indeed, a noble work and one can only praise God for it.

I am emboldened to ask whether you could not send me a contribution for our Church paper which is published in English. If you could let me have an address or sermon on any subject relating to your Theology or the life of the Christian Church, it would be most acceptable. It would not matter if the address is to be printed elsewhere; most of our readers would not see it if printed in German; so it would be quite new to them. If you have a duplicate typewritten copy of anything, that would be quite acceptable. If in German, I should have it translated by a colleague in our Theological College or else translate it myself. I shall send you a copy of our magazine that you may judge of its worth. I should like very much to give our readers a sample of your work in this way that they might become interested to read further of your works.

As a matter of interest, because one hears it so often discussed, may I asked you for a sentence or two as to what you consider to be the philosophical background of your position? This is not, of course, for publication, but simply a matter of great personal interest.

Thanking you in anticipation for this kindness on your part, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

J.W. Bowman, Editor.
