My dear Professor,

I have now heard from the Oxford Press about the expected date of publishing etc. They think that the book will take from 3-6 months to get through the press. As soon as they are able to fix the date of publication I will let you know both it and the exact title. Of course, there is no objection whatever from our end to your printing the new Preface wherever it may be convenient to you.

I am afraid I have one more question:

In the Preface to the Sixth Edition you refer to Freimund of Neuendelischau.

I have the title of the weekly publication "Freimunds Richtl.-Polit. Wochenblatt" etc. But is "Freimund" a man or simply the name of the paper?
