

52 Burton Road

Kingston, Surrey
England

July 22nd 1933.

Dr. Karl Barth.
Bonn.

Dear Dr. Barth

In the English weekly paper, "The New Statesman" of this week, there is a statement that on June 25th you published something on Theologische Existenz heute. The Editor of "The British Weekly" asks me to get a copy of the same, so I write direct to you, as I cannot find anything further on this matter in this country. I shall be very grateful if you can put me on the track of the publication, or, better still, supply me with a copy. We in this country are watching anxiously all the changes in Germany.

I have received a copy of Sir E. Hoskyns' translation of your Römersbrief and am glad to see it in circulation in English.

With kindest regards,

Yours Sincerely,
R. Birch Hoyle