Dear Dr Barth,

Mr Percy Hodder-Williams writes me that 'this country is not one for pamphlet literature these days' and 'that he is sorry but does not see where he is to find a market for those three Addresses'. He adds, 'This method of publication is really too continental for the British market.'

So I shall not be troubling further about getting a publisher.

Kindest regards, and joy to you in all your hard labours,

Yours cordially,

(R²⁰.) R. Birch Hoyle.
