Switzerland.

18th May, 1938.

Dear Dr Barth,

Would you consider writing exclusively for us an article of about 1,200 words dealing with the position of Christianity in Germany, based on your knowledge and experience of the situation as it at present is under the regime of Hitler. Has Germany become a Godless country? What will this mean?

Later we should like to commission you to write a special series of articles, six in number, on religion and world affairs, giving your views of the position to-day, whether it is on a decline or not, politics and religion, and the future of Christianity, and where it is failing to-day. Meanwhile we should be prepared to pay the sum of £10 for the article suggested, subject to approval of material.

Perhaps you would be kind enough to let us know if you would do this, and at the same time you might care to send us a synopsis of the series, if the idea of writing one appeals to you.

Yours very truly,

Daniel H. Curnock
Features Editor.
