Dear Sir,

I hope you will not mind my taking the liberty in writing you.

I have observed from our English Religious Journals at various times references to "Barthian Theology". I should be most grateful if you could explain briefly what these journals really mean.

I have not had the opportunity of attending a Theological College but try to learn as much as I can from books in the evenings etc.

It appears to me from my reading that your main theme is that of getting back to the 'Word of God' & its meaning, not just man's ideas, but God's Word.

If you could possibly spare the time to reply I shall be very pleased.

I have not yet had an opportunity of reading your Gifford lectures as there is not a copy in our public library, neither do I know anyone who has a copy. However I am hoping to receive a copy at Xmas time as presented from my wife.

I am Sir,

Yours faithfully

Arthur J. Stubbs.
